MY PROFILE STATEMENT

I'm Banele Ndlovu, and I attend the University of Mpumalanga to study BICT. Having a solid background in coding and a keen interest in technology, my goal is to work in software development. My interests include web development, artificial intelligence, and cybersecurity—all of which complement my ICT coursework. I can't wait to take on real-world problems, keep learning new things, and help develop cutting-edge, safe, and useful digital solutions.
